

SUMMARY

EMPLOYEE MISCONDUCT - Employee Using Alcohol and Marijuana at Grand Central Terminal

Acting on an anonymous tip, OIG investigators and MTA Police Department officers conducted an inspection of a supervisor's room in Grand Central Terminal at 12:30 am on a Friday morning. Three Metro North employees (a mason, a foreman and a supervisor) were found with bags of marijuana and whiskey. As a result of the investigation, two employees were terminated and one was suspended.

Press

NY Daily News 7/18/2010 - MTA workers get smoked out of lair